

DCAction Mission Statement

To improve diagnosis, management and access to treatment for Dyskeratosis Congenita and Telomere Biology Disorders through advocacy and by raising awareness amongst healthcare professionals, patients and the public and to provide support and advice for affected individuals and families.